

FROM TROY TO BAGHDAD:
Dialogues on War & Homecoming

Has the road to “homecoming” and adjustment back to civilian life been harder and longer than you expected? As a spouse or family member, have you struggled with changes created by deployment and homecoming?

Facilitated by:

Denise Askin, *Professor Emerita,
English, Saint Anselm College*

Bill Donoghue, Retired pastor, Combat veteran, Vietnam

Lieutenant Colonel Kim Dougherty
U.S. Air Force, Retired

This program is free and open to all veterans, family members, and close friends of veterans (pre-registration required).

For veterans, family members and friends of veterans:

The ancient tale of Odysseus' epic 10-year journey home from the Trojan War has much to tell us about the challenges of homecoming for today's veterans, their families, and friends. The Odyssey reveals timeless and universal truths about trauma, duty and honor, personal sacrifice, life at home, and readjustment. Veterans, current service members, family members, and friends are invited to attend this 10-week reading and discussion group co-led by a veteran, clinician, and literature facilitator. Free copies of the book will be provided at the first session. Limited seating; please RSVP.

TAYLOR COMMUNITY, 435 Union Ave., Laconia
Mondays, April 2 - June 11, 2018 • 6:30 - 8 pm (No meeting May 28)

The program uses a model developed by Professor Roberta Stewart of Dartmouth College.
